Basswood Blinds

Cleaning

Signature Window Coverings Basswood Blinds should be dusted regularly. To do this, use an ordinary soft, cloth (clean). If this is not available, a chemically-treated cloth can be used but be sure to read warning label before using the cloth. A clean, dusting mitt can also be used. Vacuum cleaner with brush attachment or cylindrical dust brushes that are specifically designed for use on wood blinds can be used at the discretion of the user. Before cleaning please lower the blind to its full length, then tilt the slats to almost fully closed and dust.

Vertical Blinds

Cleaning

First, fully close the blind to one side. To avoid having slats bunched on one end, extend the slats horizontally. Do not stack to one side. Attach a brush cleaner to a vacuum that is designed to clean vertical slats and slowly vacuum the slats, individually, from top to bottom. Make sure to move, side to side if needed for wide slats narrow or for a narrow vacuum. Take your time and repeat is necessary. After one side is complete, turn blinds fully to the other side and repeat.

Fauxwood Blinds

Cleaning

Fauxwood blinds can be vacuumed with a brush attachment moving horizontally across each slat. Make sure the brush can be used on this type of slat. A dry or damp cloth can be used to clean as well. Water and a cleaning agent designated safe for this application can be used as well.
